Helping Silicon Valley Care

About the VMC Foundation

The Valley Medical Center Foundation is a nonprofit, charity organization (Federal Tax ID 77-0187890) that raises private donations from the community on behalf of Santa Clara Valley Medical Center (SCVMC) and the entire Santa Clara Valley Health & Hospital System (SCVHHS).

The Foundation seeks these funds to purchase equipment and support programs that improve the quality of care and access to medical treatment for all residents of Santa Clara County.

Founded in 1988, the VMC Foundation has raised over $70 million in support of vital health programs and services since inception.

In addition to fundraising, the VMC Foundation performs a vital administrative role within the SCVHHS ecosystem. This function includes project management and reporting for grants, administration (i.e. accounting, deposits and disbursements) of 173 unique funds and the preparation of financial statements, audits and tax filings as required.

Lastly, the VMC Foundation maintains an event planning and program management arm to assist SCVMC with the execution of special events, conferences and other activities, as well as directly operating programs such as Reach Out and Read, Patient Wireless Interact Access, the VMC Farmers' Market and more.

About Santa Clara Valley Medical Center

SCVMC is the public, safety net health provider of Santa Clara County, California, comprising a 574-bed acute care hospital, as well as community-based outpatient and specialty clinics. SCVMC provides health services to 1 in 4 residents of Santa Clara County and has an open door policy that guarantees everyone access to care, regardless of ability to pay. It is owned and operated by the County of Santa Clara and affiliated with the Stanford University School of Medicine.

Our best year. Our hardest year.

This report is supposed to be about 2014. But really, it's about a journey that started back in 2003, when I was given the fortunate task of rebooting the Valley Medical Center Foundation.

Back then, the Foundation was barely raising $100,000 a year and lacked systems for just about everything.

Needless to say, things have changed.

Thanks to the encouragement of County and VMC leadership, a great board, staff and thousands upon thousands of supporters, we have built the VMC Foundation into something that can meaningfully impact change on behalf of the patients of Valley Medical Center.

Yet, as I survey the challenges facing VMC today, I'm reminded that there is never a time to declare victory and coast on the goodwill of past success. For years now, the people who come to work at VMC each day have been asked to do more. See more patients. Open more facilities. Improve quality and safety. The pace of change has been unrelenting. The VMC Foundation must hold itself to the same standard.

So in 2014, we set our largest fundraising goal ever by seeking $25 million to launch a Women and Children's Center at VMC. We have never taken on something so ambitious. But if these past 10 years of progress mean anything, it's a challenge we simply must meet.

The year 2014 was our best for many reasons, some of which you'll read in this report. But it was also our hardest, because the tasks before us have never been larger, and the consequences of failure never more severe.

It is a duty that I will gladly accept, because the cause of making quality healthcare available to all is a cause that I embrace with all my heart.

To all who made 2014 so extraordinary, thank you. We will spend 2015 working just as hard to be worthy of your support.

In Service,

E. Christopher Wilder, Executive Director
The Valley Medical Center Foundation

Philanthropy: More than money

When the VMC Foundation was founded in 1988, the idea was simple. In support of VMC's mission to provide quality healthcare to all citizens of Santa Clara County, a nonprofit foundation would be created to raise charitable contributions on its behalf.

Thanks to decades of tireless service to the community, VMC could already draw upon hundreds of community supporters, retired staff and grateful patients who wanted to help.

But it did not have a vehicle to channel fundraising efforts. So local boosters came together and founded a community-based, nonprofit arm that became the VMC Foundation we know today.

At the time, the raison d'être for creating a new, independent organization was mostly practical. VMC needed a nonprofit partner to solicit and collect donations.

But as the years have passed and the partnership between the Foundation, VMC and the County of Santa Clara deepened, it has become apparent that the real value of philanthropy is not just the money.

It is about the champions that philanthropy creates.

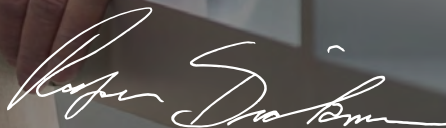

When the VMC Foundation is at its best, we are not just creating donors. We are nurturing life-long supporters who will lend their time and treasure, become advocates for VMC in the community, champion VMC at the local ballot box, and push us all to be better on behalf of the patients we serve.

That support mattered in 2008 when voters had to approve a tax on themselves to rebuild VMC, and it mattered in 2014 when community leaders from across the political spectrum held firm that the sale of local nonprofit hospitals could not be allowed to undermine VMC and our safety net.

This partnership between a public hospital and the community makes all of us stronger. It gives VMC a meaningful and lasting reservoir of support that strengthens a hospital that – sooner or later – nearly all of us will need.

As Chair of the Board of Directors of the VMC Foundation, I am proud to be a part of an organization that supports Santa Clara County's most essential hospital. I am inspired by the amazing people who go to work each day at VMC and do extraordinary things, and humbled by the opportunity to lend a hand.

Our last year was one of our more successful, but hopefully only a preview of what is to come. I hope to see you along the way.

Vice President and Senior Private Client Advisor, City National Bank
Chair, The VMC Foundation Board of Directors

May 28, 2015

The past year brought change and growth to Santa Clara Valley Medical Center. Implementing healthcare reform, expanding electronic health records and initiating numerous patient improvement projects are positively impacting the care and service delivery. The collaborative work within the organization and with our community partners is making an incredible difference.

As we continue to make changes and improvements, the access to care and capacity to see more patients is occurring in both the clinics and hospital. The financial status is continuously improving to support the ability to update technology, recruit excellent physicians and providers, hire frontline staff to support growth, and continue to provide high quality care to our patients and community. Here are just some examples of the excellent work we do:

- SCVMC is one of the safest hospitals to have a baby in the State, with a low primary cesarean section rate of 16% (10% lower than state average).
- Our Stroke Center has the lowest risk adjusted Mortality Rate for Acute Ischemic Stroke than any other Joint Commission accredited Stroke Center in the County.
- Patients discharged from our Rehabilitation Center for stroke, spinal cord injury and brain injury demonstrate some of the best functional independence measures in the nation.
- Our nurses have been recognized by the Collaborative Alliance for Nursing Outcomes for their excellence, demonstrated by the low to zero rate of hospital acquired pressure ulcers and falls with injury.
- The SCVMC Sobrato Cancer Center is the only county hospital cancer center in California to achieve certification by the American Society of Clinical Oncology Quality Oncology Practice Initiative, demonstrating a continued commitment to best practices in cancer care

Thanks to the steadfast support of County leaders, supporters, employees, patients and their families we are well positioned to continue to serve our entire community into the future. I am especially thankful to the thousands of individuals, families, private foundations and corporations that made a charitable contribution to the VMC Foundation this past year. Donor support undoubtedly helps us deliver better care to more people and ensure healthier lives. We truly appreciate the support and it does make a significant difference.

The strength of SCVMC reflects the values and ideals of this community. We are proud to take care of the residents of our community, and to all who support and stand with us, thank you again.

Paul E. Lorenz, CEO, Santa Clara Valley Medical Center

2014 Donors

VMC Foundation donors come from all walks of life: grateful patients, hospital staff, corporations and private foundations big and small. In 2014, the VMC Foundation had a total revenue of $11,581,633, including gifts from more than 2,300 unique donors. Many gave in tribute to a colleague or a loved one, while others targeted a specific cause or hospital department. No matter the amount or reason for the donation, the impact is better health for all.

John & Ann Rademakers

Like so many Silicon Valley entrepreneurs, the Rademakers got their start somewhere else. Originally from the Netherlands, John and Ann came to the United States in the 1960s to start a family and a new business. Their company, An-Jan Feed and Pet Supply, became a Valley icon. After selling the business and retiring, John and Ann sought out opportunities to give back to the community that they are proud to call their home. After touring the Pediatrics Unit at VMC and learning of plans to create San Jose's first Women and Children's Center, the Rademakers pledged $1 million in support. Ensuring that future moms and kids have access to great healthcare is a fitting addition to their local legacy.

The Sharks Foundation

Big hearts on and off the ice

One of the most steadfast supporters of the VMC Foundation, the Sharks Foundation took their generosity to a new level in 2014, announcing a $750,000 gift to the Pediatrics Department, alongside their corporate partners, SAP. The donation jump-started the largest fundraising drive in VMC Foundation history in support of a Women and Children's Center.

Tina Thibeau-Boyd

An Emergency Department Nurse Steps Up

VMC Emergency Department nurse Tina Thibeau-Boyd was an early donor to the VMC Foundation’s “Give a Booster Shot” employee fundraising campaign, pledging a $1,000 gift. While she was happy to support the hospital where she has spent her 19-year career, she found herself wanting to do more. So Tina set out to recruit her Emergency Department colleagues to support the Foundation as well. “When you have chance to give back to this place, you have to take it,” she said. Her efforts were rewarded, generating more than $40,000 in contributions from ED staff to the VMC Foundation. And she shows no signs of slowing down.

Tina Thibeau-Boyd

Dan & Tish Niehans

A Grateful Patient Gives Back

When Dan Niehans suffered a major brain injury, he and his wife Tish searched nation-wide for the best acute brain injury rehabilitation programs. The Pleasanton natives were pleased to find VMC's renowned services right in their backyard. "In the twelve weeks I virtually lived at VMC," said Tish, "I never met a staff member who was not skilled and compassionate."

Dan made significant progress in his recovery, and, as a way of expressing their gratitude, the Niehans donated $50,000 in support brain injury rehabilitation care at VMC. In March of 2015, Dan joined the VMC Foundation Board of Directors.

FIRST 5 Santa Clara County

Few organizations can match the impact that FIRST 5 has had on the children of Silicon Valley.

From funding vital insurance to health access and education programs, FIRST 5 has been a leader. After years of supporting VMC’s nationally recognized Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, FIRST 5 made a historic investment in 2014 to support the Women and Children’s Center campaign with a $4 million gift. The contribution will fund needed improvements for the NICU and Labor & Delivery Unit. “Our commitment to help make this happen,” said FIRST 5 Santa Clara County CEO Jolene Smith, “puts a stake in the ground that we truly believe in the highest quality of services for the kids and families of this community.”

Financial Statements

Per federal, state and local requirements, the VMC Foundation is obligated to undergo and make publicly available an independent audit report every fiscal year. The report includes a Statement of Financial Position, Statement of Activities, and a Statement of Functional Expenses. The complete report – available online at vmcfoundation.org – includes all related notes to these statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of VMC Foundation, San Jose, California

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of VMC Foundation (the "Foundation," a California nonprofit public benefit corporation), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of VMC Foundation as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
